THINK 'TIS ENDING

FINISHING TOUCHES OF
GEN. ROBERTS CAMPAIGN

It Is An Old Story Oft Repeated—De-Wet Is Hard Individual to Catch—Roberts May Return Soon.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: There is much inclination to believe that the operations in which Lord Roberts is now engaged against General Botha are destined to form the final stage of the South African war from the Pretoria report cabled to the effect that the Boers in the Transvaal capital believe that Botha will abandon the contest if beaten on this occasion and that Presidents Kruger and Steyn will then flee to Delagoa Bay.

But these rumors have been repeated and proved fallacious frequently enough before and it is impossible to pronounce definitely that the Boer leaders believe the limit of resistance to have been reached. The reappearance of De Wet in the Orange Free State and the activity of the Boers on Buller's communications in Natal would rather point the other way. If it had been determined to stake everything on the result of Botha's stand in the eastern Transvaal, it would hardly seem worth while to revive the campaign in other quarters.

So far the operations between the Boer and British main armies have been somewhat indecisive. Movements, as Lord Roberts says in his dispatch on Monday evening, are necessarily slow on account of the great extent and difficult nature of the country which forms the scene of the battles.
He, however, considers his advance going on satisfactorily and regards General Buller's engagement of the 27th as an important success. The result of the day's fighting was that the Boers withdrew their line by some two miles, allowing Buller to capture a strong position within their outer semi-circle of defense west of the Dalmanutha railway station.

The question now arises whether the British will be able to force the fighting so as to hold the enemy in position and compel him to accept the defeat which superior numbers and more powerful artillery should be able to inflict, or is the nature of the country such that General Buller, though driven back from one vantage ground to another, will eventually be able to retreat in time to save his guns and transport? If previous experience is a guide, the Boers will delay the British advance as long as they can do so safely, but will then retire at leisure before the invaders can secure a decisive victory.

Charles Williams, the well known military expert, believes Lord Roberts has the present intention of returning to England in the course of October so as to be ready to relieve Lord Wolseley on November 1 as commander-in-chief of the British army. In such event General Buller may be asked to resume command of the forces in South Africa.

General Warren writes to the Times to say that various statements which have recently appeared in the press purporting to be views expressed by him as to recent events in South Africa have been made entirely without his authority; that he has not expressed any opinions with a view to publication and that some of the statements attributed to him are contrary to fact.

MOVE SLOW BUT SURE

LONDON, Aug. 28.—Lord Roberts reports, under date of August 27, as follows:
"Our movements are slow on account of the nature and extent of the country. We made satisfactory advance and met with decided success.

The work fell entirely on Buller's troops and resulted in the capture of Bergendal, a very strong position two miles northwest of Dalmanutha. I met Buller at Bergendal shortly after it was reached by our troops. I am glad to find the occupation cost less than was feared, on account of the approach being across an open glacial for two or three thousand yards and the determined stand of the enemy. The infanteries and Second Rifle brigade formed the attacking party. The latter suffered most. I hope the casualties do not exceed fifty or sixty. One officer was killed and two were wounded. A good many Boers were killed and a pompon was captured.

"French advanced on the left to Swartkops on the Leydenberg road and prepared the way for the movement of Pole-Carew's division tomorrow.

"Boden-Powell reports that he entered Nylstroom without opposition.
As the country where he and the Pa-gat are operating is dense bush and well it is not desirable at present to proceed further north and his troops are returning to Pretoria."

Buller Once More
Encounters Boers

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Lord Roberts, under date of Belfast, August 29, telegraphs:
"Buller's advance occupied Machadodorp this afternoon. The enemy made a poor stand and retired northward, followed by Dundonald's mounted troops, who could not proceed beyond Helvetia on account of the difficult nature of the country and the enemy taking a position too strong to be dislodged by the mounted troops. It appears that Buller's casualties were very few.

"French continued the movement today as far as Elandsfontein, from which he turned the enemy out with no difficulty. The latter retired, leaving quantities of good cooked food behind.

"General Buller's casualties August 27 were: Killed, one officer and thirteen men; wounded, seven officers and fifty-seven men."

FIGHTING WITH BOTHA.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—A special dispatch from Pretoria, dated August 27, says:

"It is stated that fighting with Botha's commandoes was resumed this morning. The Boer lines were broken and the enemy is falling back. The British casualties are reported to be considerable."

Boers Admit Defeat.

LORENZO MARQUES, Aug. 28.— Heavy fighting is reported to have occurred at Machadodorp. The Boers are said to have been defeated with great loss, leaving their guns and ammunition in the hands of the British.

Roberts Replaces Wolseley.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail this morning claims to have the highest authority for the assertion that Lord Roberts has already succeeded Lord Wolseley as commander-in-chief of the British army.

Japan Make Advance.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—According to a dispatch received here from Tientsin, Japanese forces are now on their way from Taku to Pao Ting Fu (capital of the province of Chihli) with the object of occupying the latter place.

The German vice admiral at Taku reports the arrival at Peking August 22 of a German convoy with provisions.

The railroad from Tientsin to Yan Tsun is working, but from the latter place to Peking the road is in bad shape.
